

Governance Integrity Policy

RELEVANT STANDARD(S):

Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2025	- Outcome Standard 4.1 – Governance and Accountability - Outcome Standard 4.4 – Continuous Improvement
---	---

Purpose

This policy establishes the governance integrity framework of SNS College of Western Australia to ensure that all governing persons, senior leaders, and decision-makers are:

- Fit and proper to perform their roles
- Free from unmanaged conflicts of interest
- Acting in the best interests of learners and the RTO
- Maintaining ethical, transparent and accountable conduct

This policy ensures compliance with the Standards for RTOs 2025 and supports effective governance, public confidence and regulatory compliance.

POLICY PRINCIPLES

The following principles define what SNS College commits to.

Principle	Policy Intent (What we commit to)	Governance & Evidence
Integrity of Governing Persons	SNS College ensures all governing persons are fit and proper, demonstrating honesty, financial integrity, and regulatory compliance history suitable for operating an RTO.	Fit & Proper assessments, documented evidence, Governance Integrity Register
Ongoing Suitability Monitoring	Suitability is assessed prior to appointment and monitored periodically or when circumstances change.	Annual declarations, review cycle, documented reassessment
Conflict of Interest Transparency	All actual, potential, or perceived conflicts of interest are declared promptly and managed appropriately.	Conflict of Interest declarations recorded in Governance Integrity Register
Decision-Making Independence	Decisions affecting training, assessment, finance or compliance are made free from improper influence or personal gain.	Governance meeting records, mitigation actions where required
Accountability & Documentation	Governance integrity controls are documented, monitored and subject to internal review.	Internal audit, Continuous Improvement Register

RTO Responsibilities

Role	Responsibilities
Governing Person(s) / Director(s)	Ensure personal compliance with fit and proper requirements and declare any conflicts of interest.

Training Manager	Implement this policy and ensure integrity checks are conducted and recorded.
Compliance / Governance Officer (if applicable)	Maintain Governance Integrity Register and monitor review dates.
All Senior Decision-Makers	Declare conflicts of interest and cooperate with suitability reviews.

Fit and Proper Requirements

SNS College ensures that governing persons:

- Have not engaged in conduct that may affect their honesty or integrity
- Have not been disqualified from managing corporations
- Are not bankrupt or subject to financial administration (where relevant)
- Have not been subject to regulatory sanctions affecting suitability
- Demonstrate capacity to ensure compliance with the Standards for RTOs

Fit and proper assessments are conducted:

- Prior to appointment
- Upon change of ownership or governance
- When a material compliance issue arises
- At least annually via declaration process

Conflict of Interest Requirements

All governing persons and senior staff must:

- Declare any actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interest
- Update declarations if circumstances change
- Abstain from decisions where a conflict exists
- Comply with mitigation strategies documented by SNS College

Conflicts may include:

- Financial interests
- Personal relationships
- External employment
- Ownership interests
- Third-party arrangements

All declarations are recorded in the Governance Integrity Register.

Third-Party Arrangements Position

SNS College of Western Australia does not engage third-party providers for the delivery, assessment, recruitment, or marketing of nationally recognised training.

All training and assessment services are delivered directly by:

- Approved trainers and assessors engaged by SNS College; and
- Staff operating under the direct governance, systems, and compliance oversight of the RTO.

SNS College retains full control of:

- Training and assessment design;
- Issuance of AQF certification documentation;
- Student enrolment and administration;
- Marketing and student information; and
- Regulatory reporting obligations.

Should SNS College propose to enter into any third-party arrangement in the future, a formal due diligence, written agreement, monitoring, and review framework will be implemented prior to commencement, in accordance with Outcome Standard 4 – Governance & Accountability. The CEO and Compliance Manager review this position annually as part of the Management Review process.

Monitoring, Review and Continuous Improvement

SNS College ensures governance integrity controls are actively monitored, reviewed and improved to maintain compliance with the Standards for RTOs 2025 and protect the interests of learners.

SNS College will:

- Conduct formal Management Reviews at planned intervals to evaluate governance effectiveness, compliance performance and risk management controls.
- Review Governance Integrity controls at least annually.
- Record identified issues in the Continuous Improvement Register where required.
- Include governance integrity within internal audit scope.
- Update procedures in response to regulatory or legislative changes.

Management Reviews are conducted in accordance with the SNS-PRO-Management Review Procedure and are formally documented.
